Dear Ed,

I can't tell you how much I appreciated your making all of the arrangements for me for my trip to Minneapolis. Every aspect of it was perfect from my point of view. Of the several luncheon/dinners that I've had of this type, this was clearly the most stimulating of them all. Obviously you had picked a topnotch group of people who had very wide-ranging interests and knowledge. It was a real challenge and I thoroughly enjoyed it.

Everything else was just as super from the visit at your headquarters to a most delightful evening in your home. We are both grateful for that and all of your hospitality.

I'm sorry it has taken so long to get this in writing. I really am most appreciative.

Hope to see you both soon.

Yours,
